Mr. McGuire

Dear Mr. McGuire:

Your Member of Parliament, Mr. Bill Siksay, has forwarded to me your correspondence of September 18, 2006, concerning your experience with the U.S. Customs office at the Vancouver International Airport.

Unfortunately, the situation you describe falls strictly under the responsibility of the United States Customs and Border Protection, part of the United States Department of Homeland Security. You may visit their Web site at <http://www.customs.ustreas.gov/>, call them at (202) 354-1000, or write to them at the following address:

CBP Headquarters
1300 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20229

I have taken the liberty of forwarding your correspondence to my colleague, the Honourable Peter MacKay, Minister of Foreign Affairs, for his information and consideration.

Thank you for bringing these important matters to my attention.

Yours sincerely,

Stockwell Day, P.C., M.P.
Minister of Public Safety
